Convo 2010/11

A Journey to the Holy Land

September, 2009

GREETINGS!

It is with great anticipation that we announce the next Young Adult Convo which will take place December 28, 2010 through January 6, 2011. This Convo, for young adults 18-25 years of age, will be a pilgrimage to the Holy Land to experience the places that fill the pages of our Holy Bible. We have shifted the dates for Convo to this time frame because this is a much cheaper time for travel, and because it coincides with dates that college students generally have off for their Christmas break.

We are getting information out to you early so that folks who are interested in going will have time to raise the needed funds for the trip. We realize that this is not cheap, but do keep in mind that the price covers everything on the trip with the exception of lunches, and the optional trip insurance (which we highly recommend that people purchase).

Registration for this Convo will involve a two stage process. First of all participants should fill out the registration form that is attached on the enclosed brochure. That should be sent in, along with the $300 deposit, to Educational Opportunities as is indicated on the form. Secondly, participants should fill out the enclosed "Pilgrimage Registration" form and mail that back to the address indicated there. This second form is to let the Convo coordinators know of one's intention to join the pilgrimage and to begin the important process of preparing the participant to get as much as they can out of the trip.
