Resource Center Newsletter

April 2008

Welcome to this edition of the Resource Center Newsletter! We have developed this e-newsletter to keep you up to date on new resources we are adding to the Resource Center. This month we are highlighting three new children's books that might be used in many settings including Vacation Bible School. Come check these options out along with the many other books for loan in the Resource Center at the Board of Christian Education.

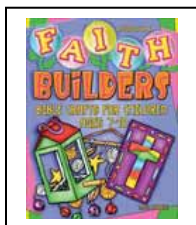

The Everlasting Snowman. Hunter Darden. Sunflower Publishing Company.

Combining the excitement of an unexpected holiday due to snow and the recognition of the eternal nature of life, the book is a story for all ages and all seasons. The wonder and beauty of creation is recalled. The value of play and recreation, friendships and family are all highlighted. They discover the great circle of life- a circle that is everlasting. It reminds us to rejoice in the present and to have faith and trust for the future. Nothing is ultimately lost. The gifts of God are eternal.

Bible Turn and Learn. Abingdon Press.

In the beginning, God made a world. This simple book of Bible stories will delight toddlers as they learn about people such as Adam and Eve; Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and the birth, life and teachings of Jesus by turning the wheels and completing the Bible stories.

Faith Builders: Bible Crafts for Children Ages 7-10. Nadia Herbert. Abingdon Press.

This features fifty exciting craft projects that elementary children will enjoy making while learning about the Bible and building their faith. Each craft has a theme that is linked to a Bible verse and combined with a lesson. Step by step instructions, materials list, and suggested time makes planning easy. It utilizes many wonderful media through which children can express their creativity and explore their faith in a group setting.
