

“I Can Only Imagine”

I can only imagine what heaven is like. Lord, your home is our destination. Can you show us the way? What path shall we choose? Which choices should we make?

Narrow is the path that leads to heaven. It is lined with all things Right, Good, Just and Kind. Along the path are many opportunities to demonstrate the lessons we have learned from Jesus.

How will we know which direction to travel?

Let Jesus be your compass and follow in his wake. Love God and praise his works. Love and Honor your parents and families. Love your neighbors as yourselves. Forgive each other, even your enemies.

I've heard the path is difficult and hard to travel. Surely, there is an easier way.

The road is not easy to travel, but the reward is great. Keep the faith and stay the course according to God's commandments. The reward will be worth the sacrifice.

But what if I get tired and need a rest? What if I get lost? Will anybody help me?

Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; those who seek, will find; and to anyone who knocks, the door shall be opened.

When I get there, will there be room in my Father's home for me? Will I fit in?

There is more than enough room in God's house. Your treasure awaits you there. In heaven, there is no more death or mourning or crying or pain. Heaven is warm, calm, and peaceful with a constant breeze blowing ever so slightly. Heaven is filled with love everywhere. Heaven is golden; bright and shiny, happy and glorious, and filled with beautiful voices singing praises to God, our Almighty King.

How do you know these things?

Faith...The Bible tells us that faith is the assurance of all things hoped for and the conviction of things not seen.

Then we will keep to the narrow path. We will follow the way of righteousness. We will follow God's commandments. We will praise God and keep him in our hearts. We will pledge our lives to God and journey to his home in heaven.
